Introduction

This catalogue represents a point in time at our depot in Penryn. We strive each year to ascertain prices and vintages of wines immediately prior to publishing this list. Inevitably things change, so if you have any queries regarding prices, vintages or availability please contact the office where we will answer your queries.

A few wines have disappeared, in the main, due to the wineries deciding to quit the UK market where they are under intense pressure to cut margins to the limit, often at the hands of the supermarket buyers. Some have decided to sell their wares in their home, or closer markets as they get a better return. What we have to do is fill their places with equally good products. In some cases there have been small price decreases, many wines have only increased in price due to higher duty levels, and where prices have gone up, rest assured that we think the wines are still good value!

Other services

Wine in Cornwall is an independent supplier with no ties to any marketing or purchasing group. This gives us the flexibility to buy as little or as much as we like from our sources in order to give you the best range of wines possible. If we do not list a wine that you would like, please ask; we will get it if it is economically viable for us to do so!

We offer a bespoke service whereby you can determine a regular level of expenditure and we will deliver your wines to your door, with all of your personal preferences taken into consideration. Please speak to Nigel if you are interested in the Club Select.

Our shop at the front of the warehouse and the 'browsing' section of the warehouse are open to any member of the public and, as there is no minimum purchase, you can buy as little or as much as you need.

Delivery in Cornwall is free for a minimum of 12 bottles (1 case) Delivery outside the county and to the Isles of Scilly is done by courier, with a minimum charge of £10.00 incl VAT.

Glasses are available on loan for your functions and you can even return them dirty!

Sale or return facilities are available for your functions, please speak to Mike or Nigel regarding your requirements.

We now try to communicate with our customers purely by email. Please let Mike know if you wish to be added to our list. We now only send out notifications of tastings and offers by this means, so it makes sense to participate!

We look forward to seeing you in the near future.
